*Sample essay:

Communication is a vital need for the whole world till date. One of the very prominent and common media for communication is Television. There would be no home without a television in today's world.

Television helps the people to get updated on daily happenings in the world. One of the biggest family entertainments is Television. Educational channels are also available in Television. While having a television at home seems to be a great advantage, the disadvantages are also threatening. The time it consumes from our day to day life is more. You can see people going out of routines or postponing schedules if they become addict to watching television.

In spite of the fact that television has some disadvantages, the utility and importance of television in modern world cannot be denied.
